

Member Reassignment Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

We receive enrollment data, including member addresses, phone numbers, and eligibility, from the State, and assign each member a Primary Care Provider (PCP). Existing members can select their PCP at any time. New members have 30 days to select a PCP. If they do not select a PCP, an auto-assignment is made for them.

We encourage providers to share this information with PHC members if inaccurate information is in our records. You can also set up a process with other clinics in your area to facilitate reassignment. A best practice is to incorporate our PCP Selection Form during registration and send it to us for members.

We are prohibited from changing PCP assignments for members without their consent. Following are some Frequently Asked Questions about member reassignment.

How can I have certain members excluded from my QIP denominators?

The QIP targets are based on HEDIS performance of Medicaid Health Plans across the nation. For these targets to be meaningful in relation to our HEDIS performance, we must follow the standardized HEDIS specifications including the exclusion criterion, which only allows exclusions on a clinical basis. While you may encounter situations where patients cannot be reached or refuse services; this affects the entire network and other health plans. The QIP Denominators for this is applied to these types of patients.
